ENow, Inc. Launches Mailscape V4.4

[Orange, CA – Tuesday, 21 October 2008]

ENow Inc, innovative leaders in the development of software to simplify Microsoft Exchange system management, today announced the formal launch of Mailscape V4.4.

Mailscape is a unique and innovative systems management tool that automates and streamlines Exchange monitoring, reporting, and administration. The highly-anticipated launch of V4.4 includes, over 80 reports that will help you gain the insight into your Exchange environment that you always wanted but never had. Do you have unique reporting needs? Mailscape now gives you the ability to customize your reports. Discover a complete systems management tool that not only provides extensive reporting, but also monitors your Exchange servers in real time. Catch potential issues before they cause mail outages with the simplicity of Mailscape's One Look dashboard.

"Mailscape is the cumulative result of a decade of experience in managing Exchange using both manual processes and third-party point solutions," says ENow's Principal Architect JP Gundotra. It was designed by Exchange administrators for Exchange administrators. We built Mailscape to make our jobs—and yours—easier."

"I would have to say that Mailscape is the most impressive and intuitive Exchange tool I've ever seen. It's a MUST for any IT team managing Exchange," says Brian Scott, IT Manager for Twistbox Entertainment.
