Andy Grogan named Exchange Most Valuable Professional

[Orange, CA – Wednesday, 01 April 2009]

We are happy to announce that Andy Grogan has recently been awarded the Microsoft Most Valuable Professional (MVP) award from Microsoft for his contribution to the Exchange community.

Andy Grogan has been deploying messaging solutions with Microsoft Exchange since the products beta. During this period, Andy has deployed Microsoft Exchange to approximately over 165,000 seats and 9,000 customers. In addition to being a renowned Exchange expert, Andy believes in giving back to the Exchange community. He regularly spends time writing technical articles that assist exchange administrators all around the world.

Andy serves as an ENow Technical Evangelist and senior editor of the ENow Solutions Engine (ESE). The ESE is an online technical resource which draws together the knowledge and experience of a number of well known Exchange Server experts to create a centralized portal of freely available tips, solutions, suggestions and news items.

The ESE is free resource that provides all engineers information on the following topics:

- Installation and Migration pointers
- Tips and Tricks
- Best Practice Suggestions from the Field
- Discussions on the underlying technologies in Exchange
